

I've seen some of the people in this film interviewed. Clearly the film is not news but a slanderous attack on Kerry's character intended to enable Bush to win the election. Those of us who remember My Lai will not be influenced by this movie. Most of the viewers will--they will not realize it's dishonest propaganda.